

Children's Museum of Manhattan

---

BigAppleParent

July 2009

Calendar of Events

Friday, 3

TARGET FREE FIRST FRIDAY NIGHT: AMERICAN DREAM QUILT: The museum offers free admission after 5pm, and is open late, until 8pm. Acclaimed artist and author Faith Ringgold will lead a drop-in intergenerational quilting workshop. Adults and children will decorate a fabric square that reflects their vision of "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness." Selected fabric squares will be sewn together to make a large-scale American Dream quilt. 5pm. Age: All. FREE. Children's Museum of Manhattan, 212 West 83rd Street. 212-721-1223. www.cmom.org.

Saturday, 4

AMERICAN DREAM QUILT: Kids learn about the importance of the Declaration of Independence and express their vision of "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness" with a creation of an American Dream Quilt. 11am, 12pm, 2pm, 3pm, 4pm. Age: YE, TW, TE. $10. Children's Museum of Manhattan, 212 West 83rd Street. 212-721-1223. www.cmom.org.